Joy's Cas Bruniany Joins Energy Team

WARRENDALE, PA, February 2006 – At the invitation of U.S. Department of Commerce (USDC), Cas Bruniany of Joy Mining Machinery has joined the Agency's Energy Team, a group committed to discovering the most effective ways to promote American energy-related technologies around the world.

The USDC Energy Team is divided into four sub-sectors: Coal, Electric Power, Oil & Gas, and Renewable. As a member of the Coal sub-sector, Bruniany joins a group of 40 representatives from various government agencies within the Departments of Commerce and Energy, U.S. embassies from 11 countries, private industry, universities and the National Mining Association.

Bruniany, who is Joy's Director International Sales, will be participating in fostering and promoting the organization of energy missions, active participation in selected trade conferences and exhibitions, developing promotional materials, and dealing with all issues related to the promotion of U.S. coal mining technologies, mining machinery, coal preparation and coal gasification.
